GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS MEMBERS TO FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY BOARD OF TRUSTEES

RALEIGH-- Gov. Mike Easley today appointed two members to the Fayetteville State University Board of Trustees.

Easley appointed John D. Fuller, Sr. of Fayetteville, Pastor of Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church and reappointed Larry Tinney also of Fayetteville, of Royal Crown Leasing, Inc.

"John's character, integrity, and commitment to education will serve Fayetteville State and all of North Carolina well during his tenure on the board," said Easley.

"Larry's proven track record in business will be extremely valuable to the University as decisions are made on bond expenditures over the next several years," Easley said.

The appointments are effective July 1, and are four-year terms.

There are 16 boards of trustees in the University of North Carolina System. Each has a membership of 13 members as follows: four appointed by the Governor, eight elected by the Board of Governors, as well as the President of each Student Government Association who serves as an ex-officio member. These boards of trustees are authorized by General Statutes 116-31 and serve to promote sound development within the institutions, help serve the State in a way that will help compliment the other institutions, and aid performance at a high level of excellence in every endeavor.
